

Please do not create new ownership rules that will result in larger and ever more powerful media monopolies that , by definition, lessen the availability of diverse opinion and information sources--both of which are essential to a free press. On June 2 please keep ownership limits where they are presently. The public airwaves must be protected on behalf of the public interest.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mimi Wrobel